LAURA ASHLEY

SINCE 1953

Laura Ashley Tableware Collectables 2022

Laura Ashley is one of the world's best-loved fashion and home furnishings companies in the world. In the early 1950s, enthused by an exhibition at the Victoria and Albert Museum, Laura and Bernard Ashley set up a homemade printing press on their kitchen table and started to print simple monoprint patterns for neck scarves, tablemats, napkins and tea towels. The products proved to be so popular that within a short space of time they were selling to the biggest retailers in the UK, and the rest is history. Laura Ashley became renowned for its abundance of small-scale prints, particularly for dress fabrics and home textiles. By 1975 the Company had 40 shops in the UK and abroad.

Iconic prints

Our elegant and exciting tableware collectables add character and charm to any dining set up. From golden-lined espresso cups to pretty floral sets, each range is made with love and designed to sit together as a set or to be mix-and-matched for a personalised look.

Laura Ashley Tableware collections are known for the abundance of the brand's smallscale and iconic prints. By combining British Heritage and modern trends, Laura Ashley Tableware turns every meal into a special occasion.

A variety of collections

Laura Ashley Tableware carries several collections: each with its own style but still with signature fine prints on contemporary designs. There is always a print that fits perfectly with whatever you're serving. Make every meal memorable with Laura Ashley Tableware Collectables.

Blueprint Collectables

Blueprint Collectables tells the story of Laura Ashley's first steps. She had always had great interest in different cultures and the arts and could often be found in museums and movie theatres.

She was in fact greatly inspired by the movie Roman Holiday, where Audrey Hepburn was seen wearing small printed scarves. 'We should do that too!', she must have said to her husband, Bernard.

Not too long after that, did she in fact produce the first few handmade prints in two colours, on her very kitchen table, using a machine that had cost her around £10. What a great investment that turned out to be!

The scarves quickly proved to be a great success. It was those same first handmade prints that gave us the inspiration for our Blueprint Collectables: a beautiful range of blue and white mixed flower designs on refined new bone porcelain that will give your table the real Laura Ashley feeling.

Heritage Collectables

Laura Ashley loved culture, in every way, she drew inspiration for designs from everywhere: museums, exhibitions, her beloved Welsh culture and, every now and then, there were also special events such as auctions. It was indeed at an auction she attended in search for inspiration that she found a beautiful curtain from 1890: it was so old and delicate, almost parchment, yet the design touched her deeply. She bought the beautiful piece and translated it into her own design, with her own colours and the typical Laura Ashley feeling. A new iconic print was born: Summer Palace.

This beautiful impressively large print became a classic, and later appeared in several more colours too. This was the inspiration for our Heritage Collectables: not only because the print is so extraordinary, but also because of the origins, the heritage and the story behind it. Enjoy this new bone porcelain range of Collectables with all the elements from this iconic, timeless print. You can mix and match every piece and give your table that grand iconic Laura Ashley look!

Artisan Collectables

Wales was home for Laura Ashley and one of the places dearest to her heart. She loved the beautiful countryside with its hilly landscapes, the vast spaces, even the drizzly weather, but most of it all she loved the Welsh culture. Culture and nature are where Laura drew inspiration from and soon became an integral part of the stories she wanted to tell through her designs, which still resonate with so many of us to this day. Close your eyes, imagine entering one of those beautiful rural cottages, sitting at the kitchen table with your kind host and enjoying dinner together: what do you see? Sturdy yet elegant pottery pieces with an irregular handmade look and refined details. Meet Artisan Collectables: a range of subtly classic earthenware pieces, that fit perfectly in this calm bucolic atmosphere, made elegant with pretty details and decorative elements from Wild Clematis, one of Laura Ashley's most popular original prints from her famous archives. Artisan is suitable for all occasions: a beautiful summer evening, a festive Christmas dinner, or any occasion you want to add that peaceful and rural feeling to.

Wild Clematis Collectables

It's no big secret that Laura Ashley loved nature: the real leitmotiv in her legacy, in all variations of flowers and nature designs. In addition to her love for everything that grew and blossomed, her style has also become famous for the use of colour, with some tones frequently coming back in her colour charts. One of them is sage green: a timeless slightly greyed green, that is very easily connects different shades in her designs.

The use of this colour has become a classic. Besides Sage, Oxblood is also an indispensable part of the Laura Ashley pallet. The beautiful, refined Wild Clematis print from her very early days, now a classic, in combination with the more recent Daniela design produces a very contemporary image.

The marriage of both colours with the two designs gave us the inspiration for our Wild Clematis Collectables. The refined classic stripes and dots connect the whole print and give you the chance to create your own timeless tableware combinations with the ultimate Laura Ashley feeling.
